JULIE Marvel

Speaker, Storyteller,
Educator & Community Builder

Julie Marvel brings personal stories, thoughtful conversation, and practical connection skills to employees, leaders, and communities.

With a master's degree in education and experience as a teacher, interviewer, and community founder, she helps people feel seen, heard, and included.

She grew a Facebook group to more than 10,000 women, with around 500 actively participating across events. She ran five to seven events weekly and trained a team of 20 volunteer hosts in welcoming culture, connection, and event logistics.

Her keynotes and workshops explore how storytelling and everyday habits help people build relationships through change.
